

2009/2010
First Aid

If there is any chance of further injury to a player by moving that player, do not move him/her. Instead, call for professional help and try and keep the player as comfortable as possible until professional help arrives.

Always remember that the well-being of the players is more important than the game.